POINT

BOX 668
MENLO PARK, CALIF. 94025

SUMMARY OF GRANTS

Agents: Alice Tepper-Marlin; Founder and Director of Council on Economic Priorities in New York. Grant for educational activism in the Corporate Social Responsibilities field. ($15,000)

Toni Ayres, Maggie Rubenstein, and Carolyn Smith; Grant to start San Francisco Sex Information. A project to make accurate information on human sexuality available to public and act as advocates for individual rights in the coming sensual era. (Phone service opened November 1, 1972) (3 for $3,600, one for $4,200 to S.F.S.I.)

Selma Monsky, Hugh Schwartz, and Peter Sherrill; Grant to start the San Francisco Community Survey. Project to develop "community" in a large urban area and bring new democratic forces into governmental processes. (3 for $1,000 and $15,000 to Institute for Research in Social Behavior)

Mary Williams; Founder and co-director of Council for Corporate Review (Minneapolis). Travel expenses in connection with corporate proxy resolutions. ($400)

Michael Phillips as Agent Projects:

- Creative and Extra-ordinary People; to identify the people in the U.S. with the greatest potential for effecting long range creative change and finding ways to help them help each other.

- Sign in the Desert; to explore a new potential for international communication.

- Sex Therapy Furniture; to explore new sexual modes.

- Human Sexuality Research; to develope new research instruments and theories concerning voluntary human interaction with particular emphasis on sexual interactions.

- Corporate Social Responsibility; two conferences in 1972 to bring together activists in corporate social change to improve coordination ~~in this field~~ and accelerate the growth rate of activity in this field.

(approximately $11,000 to date)

Mike 11/17/72